

JFS Now Accepting Applications

For 2017-2018 College Year

Jewish Family Service is now accepting applications for both Nathan and Sarah Klein Fund for Interest-Free Student loans and for the Lloyd & Marissa (of blessed memory) Parkans Scholarship Fund for the 2017-2018 academic year. DEADLINE FOR BOTH IS MAY 30, 2017.

Students seeking the Parkans Scholarship should be local Jewish students who will be attending a four-year college or university, within the United States, in the fall of 2017. These students should have demonstrated financial needs, outstanding academic achievement, leadership, community involvement and admirable personal attributes. This scholarship will provide resources to enable an undergraduate student to realize his or her potential through academic achievement.

Local students seeking the interest-free student loans from the Klein Fund with demonstrated financial need may receive assistance with educational and living expenses in undergraduate, graduate school, and trade school programs. (NOTE: limited number of loans are available for trade school). Jewish Family Service works in partnership with Hebrew Free Loan Association to provide additional resources for graduate and trade school students seeking loans.

For more information on either of these programs or to set-up and complete the required interview (in person or by Skype) before the May 30, 2017 deadline, please call Jewish Family Service at 713-667-9336, ext. 107 or e-mail:acroft@jfshouston.org Applications can be found online at www.jfshouston.org/loansandscholarships
